

History

Advice for Parents

The pupils should be encouraged to discuss with peers and relatives contemporary events, by watching and reading the news, in order to place them into a historical context.

Pupils should be encouraged to use Apps, Podcasts and history websites, including the BBC, to provide additional resources and challenging views.